Dr. Kannett Lectures in Salem .-- School Flags Assured.

Dr. Gregory de Kannett, the eminent Russian traveler, journalist, and lecturer, gaye his lecture "An Evening in Russia" at the opera house Saturday evening. The seating capacity of the large auditorium and gallery also was taxed to their utmost. The short musical program as published in Saturday's JOURNAL was well executed with an additional number. Erma, the little daughter of Prof. Hall, of Lincoln school, recited a short piece, entitled "Many Flags" in a very pleasing manner.

Dr. Kannett was introduced by city superintendent of the public schools, Geo. A. Peebles, through whose untiring efforts this most instructive and interesting lecture was given in Salem.

The lecturer first gave an account of the country, its government and religion, and then, with the assistance of the 100 beautiful stero-electrical views, continued his talk. The audience was conducted throughout the city of Moscow by Dr. Kannett, and every point of interest was visited and a full explanation given thereof. The last effect produced at the conclusion of the lecture was one in which Lib-
